

Are You?

- Related to a BARTON ancestor who went by the title "Reverend"?

In Summer 2003 we enumerated thirty-three BARTON ancestors who were known by the title "Reverend". Now (2019) there are 172 Reverends in the Barton Database at

<https://www.bartondatabase.com/search.php?mybool=AND&nr=50&tree=-x--all--x->

<https://www.bartondatabase.com/search.php?mybool=AND&nr=50&tree=-x--all--x->

<https://www.bartondatabase.com/search.php?mybool=AND&nr=50&tree=-x--all--x-> If you don't see yours just let cousin Gary Barton (garybarton.barton@gmail.com) know the details.

- Of English/Scottish/Irish descent?

Perhaps you are related to one of these ancient notable BARTON cousins:

- 1st through 4th Barton of Ballyline (descended from Cornet George Barton)
- 2nd through 6th Barton of Goslingstown (also descended from Cornet George Barton)
- Sir John Barton of Fryton, County York
- Sir John Barton of Oswaldkirk
- Sir Thomas Barton of Lancashire
- Sir Robert "Robin" Barton (son of Captain John Barton of Leith, County Edinburgh, Scotland)
- Admiral Sir Andrew Barton (another son of Captain John Barton of Leith, County Edinburgh, Scotland)
- Admiral Ralph Barton of the Royal Navy, b. 1795, Wigan, England
- Lord Richard Barton of Fryton and Whenby
- Lady Edith of Barton m. Gilbert de Nottun of Barton, Lancashire

If so, are you or do you have a male BARTON who participated in the BARTON DNA Project? Again, just let cousins Gary or Terry (terry@bartonsite.org) know.